

The Suffolk County Department of Parks presents:

Sportfishing On Long Island

Instructed by Captain Jerry McGrath

An experienced fisherman, lecturer, author & former Montauk Charter Skipper, Captain McGrath has been honored by the Suffolk Association for Continuing/Community Education with a "Teacher of the Year" award.

A course designed for novices as well as old salts. Species covered include: striped bass, flounder, blackfish, fluke, weakfish, bluefish, shark, and tuna.

Classes are held for 10 weeks, every Tuesday night, at the Old Infirmary Building at 360 Yaphank Avenue in Yaphank. Classes begin at 7:30 pm and last approximately 2 hours, starting January 22, 2013.

Course Fee: $130.00 pp (Senior & Junior discounts available)

Make check payable to: Captain Jerry McGrath

Mail check and registration form to:

Suffolk County Parks Department
Attn: Terry Maccarrone
P.O. Box 144 – Montauk Highway
West Sayville, NY 11796

Course Instruction Includes:

- Bait and Lure Selection
- Chumming
- Fishing locales & "Hot Spots"
- Anchoring
- Tackle Selection
- Safety
- Use of A/V materials such as slides, overhead transparencies, videotapes, and detailed handouts
- Periodic presentations by guest speakers
- Free sample copies of angling publications such as "The Salt Water Sportsman"
- Opportunities for excursions

SUFFOLK
COUNTY
PARKS

For registration information please call (631) 854-4947

Steven Bellone, County Executive

Gregory Dawson, Commissioner

Registration Form

Sport Fishing on Long Island – begins January 22, 2013.

PLEASE PRINT NEATLY

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____ Phone _____

Alt. Phone _____ E-Mail _____

Checks payable to: Captain Jerry McGrath

Please detach and return with check no later than January 18, 2013.